

“The Road to Complexity is Paved with Good Intentions”

Science & Engineering Building Auditorium
Monday, October 5, 2009
10:00 a.m.
Reception at 11:10 a.m.
(Open to the Public)

Ms. Amanda Nance

Ms. Nance graduated cum laude from Mercer in 2002 with a double major in Technical Communication and Psychology. After working in the medical software industry, she returned to school and earned a Master's degree in Human-Computer Interaction from Georgia Tech.

Amanda is currently a Usability Analyst at Sage Software where she designs software for small businesses. Her focus is on ensuring the software is user friendly.

She is also on the board of directors of the Usability Professionals' Association (UPA).