Code Of Conduct

I am familiar with the general regulations governing the conduct of the students at Mercer University as set forth in the Mercer University Catalog (and "The Honor System" page 34 of the catalog and "Code of Conduct" at http://studentaffairs.mercer.edu/judicial/) under which I am applying for admission. I pledge to abide by these regulations and any other comparable regulations that may be adopted during the periods of my enrollment. By the act of entering Mercer University, I agree to abide by the rules of the honor system.

By the act of entering Mercer University, each student personally consents to Mercer's Honor System and thereby agrees to be governed by its rules. Furthermore, each student is personally responsible for knowing the rights and obligations as set forth in the Honor System. The student is also expected to cooperate with all proceedings of the Honor System and to participate fully in the Honor System. Students who refuse to accept the Honor System will be denied admission.
